Men

Canterbury and Belfast lead the Interclub Mens Sevens Division One Bowls competition after two Rounds were played over the weekend.

Canterbury beat Burnside 6-0 and Elmwood 4-2 whilst Belfast were equally dominant in beating Burnside 6-0 and Riccarton Racecourse to move two points clear after 5 Rounds.

Canterbury's Maurice Symes playing pairs had two tough wins whilst Belfast's Gary Lawson was equally impressive in winning his Pairs and Singles games over the two rounds beating Burnside's Ken Prebble 25-14 in the Pairs and well performed Riccarton Racecourse Singles player Paul Matheson 25-18 in his other game.

In Section Two Christchurch lead by two points from Canterbury II with South Brighton a further point behind on 16 points.

South Brighton's Roger Glendenning who played in the Stokes Singles in the first Round has won his last 3 Singles games.

Womens Sevens:

Beckenham with one round still to be played have won the Womens Sevens Division One competition after winning their two rounds over the weekend against Burnside and Canterbury I 6-0.

Such has been Beckenham's dominance in the competition they have only dropped one game with Canterbury Selector Verna Veint who is not available for representative play this year unbeaten along with Canterbury rep player Adele Greenfield.

In Division Two the Leeston/Dunsandel Womens team with Canterbury rep players Sandra Keith and Serena Mathews playing the Singles and Pairs now lead their competition after beating Halswell 4-2 and Beckenham 6-0 in their double header. With one round to play Leeston/Dunsandel are 4 points clear of Rangiora and play them in the last round.
